Big news = new style. Welcome to the new look Live Cinema Network news, lovingly made by Live Cinema UK. (Just in time for GDPR on 25th May. We'll be asking you to opt in again soon).

We're delighted to announce the full programme for the Live Cinema Summit at Sheffield Doc/Fest, along with an incredible live cinema and live events programme as part of the Festival.

The theme REAL LIVE marks the inaugural Live Cinema Summit at Sheffield Doc/Fest as we bring together storytellers, art makers and experience creators from across the realms of factual and fiction.

We'll address:

- What's changed in the world of live since 2016 when we held the live cinema conference in London (our academic sidekicks Helen and Sarah have literally written the book on it...)
- What the world of factual storytelling can draw from the narrative-driven world of experiential cinema
- How archive material and live scores have become a staple of live cinema industry, and where can the medium go from here
- Brain scanners! Headsets! Multi-optional narratives! Buttons! What future tech holds for the in-cinema audience experience, and do audiences want it?
- Plus: behind-the-scenes exclusive artist presentations with the live cinema superstars of the 2018 Sheffield Doc/Fest programme including Reeps One on We Speak Music Live, and Iain Forsyth and Jane Pollard on their Festival Commission DOUBLETHINK.

Live Cinema Summit Passes get you access to all five panel sessions on Day 1 in the Netflix Crucible Studio, Round Tables and further sessions on Day 2 of the Summit in the Crucible Adelphi, the Live Cinema Summit Drinks, tickets to THREE world premiere events commissioned as part of the Live Cinema Talent Pool: Reeps One presents We Speak Music Live, Richard DeDomenici's Threads: Redux, and Amy Cutler's Nature's Nickelodeons. Plus, a shiny Doc/Fest Catalogue, Programme and bag, and access to a Live Cinema Roadmap for the whole Festival, should you be staying with us until Tuesday 12 June (which we recommend you do...)

Plus, access to the free Alternate Realities Exhibition, the Doc/Fest Exchange on Tudor Square, and awesome documentary programming on the free outdoor screens

The Live Cinema Summit at Sheffield Doc/Fest 2018 is produced in partnership with Live Cinema UK, The Live Cinema Network, King's College London and the University of Brighton, and is supported using public funding by the National Lottery through Arts Council England.

[OPEN CALL: SHEFFIELD DOC/FEST POSTER COMPETITION]
[Deadline this Friday 4th May]

This year Sheffield Doc/Fest turns 25, and to celebrate this milestone edition they are seeking poster artwork that honours the Festival's passion for documentary and for Sheffield.

Sheffield Doc/Fest is an internationally recognised and lauded festival with films and filmmakers coming from all over the world, but also has a great sense of local presence, audience and pride, and want to produce artwork that represents this.

The winner will receive £300, plus 30% of the merchandise takings that feature the artwork, and a 2018 Festival Pass.
